

Mothers Day

Dave Hause

[Verse 1]

E

It was Mother s Day

B

When you came clean

C#m

B

A

We let the car run under the overpass like when we were teens

[Verse 2]

E

You said it ground you down

B

You said you made a mess

C#m

B

A

You said your world was grey and the kids were the only colour that was left

[Verse 3]

E

I think I spoke too soon

A

I always hate it when you cry

C#m

B

A

I should have told you then what I m writing now, it kept me up all night

[Chorus]

E

You re gonna be fine

B

Mother s Day comes and goes

C#m

B

Summer will be here soon to chase the chill away

A

We ll chase regret out with the ghosts

E

You re gonna be fine

B

Give it some time and you ll see

C#m

You ll have these East Coast springs

B

Three headstrong kids

B

You ll have Jesus and you ll have me

E

You re gonna be fine

[Verse 4]

E

It was a parking lot

B

Near that South Carolina dive

C#m

B

A

I came unglued, I freaked you out, let the bees out of the hive

[Verse 5]

E

I let it go too long

B

Long past the point of fun

C#m

B

I hadn t gotten it all out of my system yet

A

I said I d move on, I was done

[Verse 6]

E

I think I spoke too soon

B

I always hate to make you cry

C#m

B

Like on Mother s Day when you told me again

A

Folks like us are never satisfied

[Chorus]

E

But we re gonna be fine

A

Just like you told me before

C#m

B

Oh I can pick back up and get to work

A

Or I can walk right out the door

E

But I m gonna be fine

A

To Carolina to sea

C#m

B

We ll have heads like hives on Mother s Day

B

So thank you Jesus for the bees

E

We re gonna be fine

B

On Mother s day

C#m B

Gonna be fine

A B

On Mother s Day

E

I m gonna be fine
