First Verse and Intro

E A

I look into the sun and colors jump these skies clouds taking over, the endless of the blue
I close my eyes and trust in you
No lights to guide my way
My bed s not made our clothes are off no socks to hide our feet

Post First Verse

Abm A B C#m

Second Verse

C#m E A E

We were one fighting, one not to disagree behind our nakedness to souls afraid to keep
We fight ourselves, an anger we posses
Forgetting to retreat those things we never leave Pure bodies press together with nothing to hide Together asleep, we both can rise

Chorus

C#m B A

I want to be inside your sky
