

I ve heard my name a few times in your phone book

I ve seen it on signs where I ve laid
But the only time I know, I ll hear David Allan Coe
Is when Jesus has his final judgement day.

CHORUS...

then: the spoken part below has this played in the background:
(the numbers are complete bars)

C-2 G-4 C-2 G-2 C-1 G-1 and then C to finish out the rest.

Well, a friend of mine named Steve Goodman wrote that song and he told me it was the perfect country and western song
I wrote him back a letter and told him it was NOT the perfect country and western song because he hadn t said anything about Momma, or trains, or trucks, or prison, or gettin drunk.
Well, he sat down and wrote another verse to the song and he sent it to me and after reading it, I realized that my friend had written the perfect country and western song. And I felt obliged to include it on this album. The last verse goes like this here:

Well, I was drunk the day my Mom got outta prison.
And I went to pick her up in the rain.
But, before I could get to the station in my pickup truck
She got runned over by a damned old train.

CHORUS:

So I ll hang around as long as you will let me
And I never minded standin in the rain. No,
You don t have to call me darlin , darlin
C G C F
You never even call me, I wonder why you don t call me
C G F C F C
Why don t you ever call me by my name.
