Honey Don t

written by David Allan Coe

performed by David Allan Coe, from the album Compass Point

G C
I ve done some ramblin down in Mississippi
G D
I ve done some time in Tennessee
G C
I served my sentence in a Fender twin amplifier
G D G
Honey, don t you lay that shit on me.
G
(chorus) Honey, don t you lay that shit on,
C
Honey, don t you lay that shit on,
G D
Honey, don t you lay that shit on me.
G C
I paid my dues to the musicians union,
G D G
Honey, don t you lay that shit on Slim.

I ve been a roadie for Satan honey
I was a soundman for the Devil, you see
Now I m a guitar with the heart of a banjo
Honey, don t you lay that shit on me.
(repeat chorus)

(repeat chorus)...

(repeat first verse)

Eat your heart out, Bill Monroe!
