C#

(Intro) She s just a tear I used to cry

F#

Long before we said goodbye

G#7

C#

Now she s just a lady that I used to know

When the bottle took her place

F#

She was a mirror I had to face

G#7

C#

And a dream I dared to dream some time ago.

C#

G#7

I lost her eyes to a whole bunch of Pina Coladas

C#

After a few Margaritas I took all the blame

G#7

For drinking Manhattans at three in the morning I lost her

C#

Between the Vodka and the Gin and the Beer and Champagne

I lost her lips late one night on a Strawberry Daiquiri
Jack Daniels, Whiskey and Rum couldn t help me that time
I lost her arms and her hands to a glass of Tequila
I lost her heart and her soul in a bottle of Wine

I lost a bet that our love would last forever
Sloe Gin and Tonic was making my heart hard to find
With two Bloody Mary s I ran out of Vodka this morning
Losing my chances of drinking her off of my mind.
