Revenge

by David Allan Coe and Jimmy Sadd

as performed by David Allan Coe

G C D G
Judy, I feel weary now, older than a man of 33

C D G
The gates of Hell just opened, after 20 years the warden says I m free

D
Revenge was all I wanted

C D G
When I killed the man that took your life that day

C D G
I ve had my satisfaction, but the price was more than love should have to pay

D C
Lord knows you weren t no lady, and the witnesses

D G
All swore you was to blame

D
And the way you teased the menfolk,

C G D
The jury all agreed you knew no shame, knew no shame.

Second verse:

Well I m glad that you can t see me now

You d probably say I do not look my best

Those lawyers took my money, and that Louisiana road gang took the rest

And Judy I can t even conjure up your picture in my mind today

Lately I ve been thinkin what a fool I was to love you anyway

Last verse:

Well it all seems kind of useless
As I place these flowers on your grave today
I don't know what I'm doing here,
I've forgotten all the things I came to say
