Harmless Sparks by David Bazan

C G F C
They might have burned but the priests were all taking turns

Em Am Am/G F G G7
showing nuns what they had discerned about their bodies in the dark

C G F C
They carried on from the evening until the dawn

Em Am Am/G F
like they should have been all along making harmless sparks

G G7 C
instead of breaking little boys hearts

F C
And God knows, if you noticed the millions of small holes

G Am
And ponder the weight of an apple Compared to the trouble we re in

F C
Then a grown man might, be tempted to question his birthright

G F
In front of his kids and devout wife Causing the doubt to begin,

G C
To spread like original sin
