E		B		C#m	A
She	was	walking	cross	George	Square
				in	the rain.
E		B		C#m	A
I	was	high.	I	was	so
				high	in
				a	plane.
E				B
I	was	trying	to	see	through
				the	clouds,
C#m				A
Looking	for	places	we	d	been,
E		B		C#m	A
Like	a	sign,	like	a	sunburst,
				like	the letters	in
				her	name.

E		B		C#m	A
Oh	girl,	don	t	change	your hair	for
				me	now.
B		E
I	am	on	your	side.
E		B		C#m	A
No	girl,	don	t	hide	your hands	from
				me	now.
B		E
I	am	on	my	way	down.

E B C#m A
She was walking quite slowly all alone.
E B C#m A
All the lights in the windows were aglow.
E B
But the statues they were so silent,
C#m A
With the rain splashing their heads.
E B C#m A
How bad she wanted to hear them tell her which way is best.

E B C#m A
Oh girl, don t change your dress for me now.
B E
I am on your side.
E B C#m A
No girl, don t hide your eyes from me now.
B A
I am on my way down.
B E
I am on my way down.

E B C#m A
We were back in George Square when the rain gave way.
E B C#m A
There s something in how the spring comes so suddenly.
E B
And the dress she wore was yellow.
C#m A
And the rain was in her hair.
E B C#m A
How bad I wanted to tell her that I would always be there.

E B C#m A
So girl, don t change, don t change please don t change.
B E
I am on your side.
E B C#m A
No girl, don t hide your heart from me now.
B A
I am on my way down.
B A
I ll be on your side.
B E
I am on your side.
