David Bowie

F# - G# - A#m - G# - A#m - C - C#

C#

If you can see me I can see you

E - Fm

E

I could wear your new blue shoes

E

I should wear your old red dress

E

And walk to the crossroads

E

So take this knife

Fm

And meet me across the river

E

Just chutes and ladders and this is the kiss

E

American Anna, fantastic Alsatian

E

From nowhere to nothing

Fm

And I go way back

E

Children swarm like thousands of bugs

E

Towards the lights the beacons above the hill

E

Fm

The stars to the West, the South, the North and to the East

F#

G#

Now you could say I ve got a gift of sorts

A#m

G#

A fear of rear windows and swinging doors

A#m

C

A love of violence and dread of sighs

C#

If you can see me I can see you

C#

If you can see me I can see you

E - Fm

E

I have seen these bairns wave their fists at God

E

Swear to destroy the beasts, stamping the ground

Fm

In their excitement for tomorrow

E

I could wear your new blue shoes

E

I should wear your old red dress

E

And walk to the crossroads

E

So take this knife

Fm

And meet me across the river

F#

G#

I will take your lands and all that lays beneath

A#m

G#

The dust of cold flowers, prison of dark of ashes

A#m

C

I will slaughter your kind who descend from belief

C#

I am the spirit of greed, a lord of theft

C#

I ll burn all your books and the problems they make

C#

If you can see me I can see you

C#

If you can see me.
