Verse 1

```
C          Bb                F                C
Baby, baby brush the dust of youth from off your shoulder
  C                Bb                F                C
Because the years of threading daisies lie behind you now
C                Bb                F                C
Don t return to fields of green where rainbow secrets were told
C                Bb                F                C
Place your ragged doll with all the toys and paints and beads
Gm                F                C
I will show you gain where the winner never wins
```

```
Bb          F          C
Let your hair hang down
Bb          F          C
Wear the dress your Mother wore
Bb          F          C
Let me sleep beside you
F                C
Du du du du du du du dum dum
F          C
```

Du du dum

Verse 2

C Bb F C
Lock away your childhood and throw away the key
C Bb F C
For now the streets and city sounds will burn your eyes as coals
C Bb F C
You shall drink the oldest wine and velvet skies will linger
C Bb F C
Child, you re a woman now your heart and soul are free
Gm F C
I will hold a lighted lamp and we shall walk together

Bridge

Bb C Bb C
Your darkened eyes close free but your lips are void of mystery
F Eb Bb F
You could not imagine that it could happen this way...could you
