

You Feel So Lonely You Could Die
David Bowie

Intro: A E G D (2x)

D Bm D Bm
No one else saw you moving through the dark
G F#m Em Bm
Leaving slips of paper somewhere in the park
D Bm
Hidden from your friends
D Bm
Stealing all they knew
G F#m
Love is thrown in airless rooms
Em Bm
Then vile rewards for you

Bm D E7
I'm gonna tell. Yes, I've got to tell, gotta tell
G Bm G
The things you've said
E
When you're talking in the dark
G
And I'm gonna tell the things you've done
E
When you're walking through the park

D E
Some night on a thriller street
D A
Will come a silent gun
D E
You've got a dangerous heart
D A
You stole their trust, their moon, their sun
D E
There'll come assassin's needle
D A
On a crowded train
D E A D
I bet you'll feel so lonely you could die

D Bm
Buildings crammed with people
D Bm
Landscape filled with wrath

G F#m
Grey concrete city
Em Bm
Rain has wet the street
D Bm
I want to see you clearly
D Bm
Before you close the door
G F#m
A room with bloody history
Em Bm
You made sure of that

Bm
I can see you as a corpse
D
Hanging from a beam
E7 G Bm
I can read you like a book
G
I can feel you falling
E
I here you moaning in your room
G
Oh, see If I care
E
Oh please, please, make it soon

D E
Walls have you cornered
D A
You've got the blues, my friend
D E
And people don't like you
D A
But you leave without a sound without an end
D E
Oblivion shall own you
D A
Death alone shall love you
D E D E A D
I hope you feel so lonely you could die,
D E
(Feel so lonely)
D E A D
You could die
E D
You feel so lonely you could die
