Nobody wants to sing this song
Of moving on, of moving on Sometimes you want to end it all
Instead of moving on, moving on

Did you know you took my breath away left me speechless, with nothing more to say I m standing here inside your home but you can t see me anymore
I just want you by my side

Nobody wants to sing this song
Of moving on, of moving on
Instead of moving on, moving on

All the scars and all the sores that healed Marred again but somehow I can t feel it you know I was looking forward to getting old with you and I see you there with someone new but it doesn t matter, now it s something I can do

Nobody wants to sing this song
Of moving on, of moving on

Instead of moving on, moving on

Did you know you took my breath away
