

Lucky Guy
David Choi

Ok so this is my first tab, things will be wrong I m sorry. I don t know how to do all f his cool guitar and piano solos so don t ask. I play the song with the capo on the 4th fret and it sounds relatively similar to his version. Enjoy :D Oh and i t the same all the way through the song until you get to the last chorus where it changes slightly I m not sure how though.

Fm C#

It s been so long since I ve met someone

Bbm Eb

That makes me feel this way

Fm C#

Makes me smile, and that s hard to do

Bbm Eb

I don t think it s something you realize you do

Fm Bbm

You make me feel

C# Eb Fm

Like I m the only guy

F#

With you in the world

G#

But we can t be together

Fm

Can t really be friends

Bbm

We can t be lovers

C#

And we can t pretend

Fm

Oh that boy in your life

Bbm

Better make you his wife

C#

G#

And he better believe he s a lucky guy

You wanted a song well here s one for you

Nobody will know except for us two

Don t ask me about it

Cuz I won t tell the truth

Just know that there s someone

Thinking of you

You make me feel

Something I wish wasn t real at all

Chorus

You were never mine to begin with...

So we can t be together

Can t really be friends

We can t be lovers

And we can t pretend

Oh that boy in your life

And he better believe he s a lucky guy
