I just tab the chords...I hope this will help...please try this!

F# F#
Completely colorblind, these red lights are going unseen
D#m
Fall behind with words unsaid you know they re always obscene
B F#
cause my ears, they bled before; I need to let them heal
F#
She fell out; her broken legs won t let her walk away
F# D#m
From this town that couldn t give a single shit either way
B F#
And her fears, they bled before she s convinced that they re real

Chorus:

F#
What are you looking for?
(F#-/F) D#m
Are you looking for something more?
B
It s not me
F#
It s not me

F# F#
Lost her way from everything she swore she knew, a friend
D#m
Run away from start to finish though it never ends
B F#
In her mind she is blinded by all she sees
F# F#
Close your eyes; just pretend the bullet isn t there
D#m
No surprise; no need to pretend that no one really even cares
B F#
But in her eyes you will find the very best in me

Chorus:

F#

What are you looking for?

(F#-/F) D#m

Are you looking for something more?

B

It s not me

F#

It s not me eeh eeh

adlib: F#-D#m-B-C#

Chorus 2:

F#

When did it all unwind?

(F#-/F) D#m

Are you prepared for you ll find?

B

It s not me

F#-F#(hold)

It s not me

This is just my version...I think it s like the original guitar tab you heard...But I think there s something to be add (not pretty sure if there s a drop D here, perhaps.)...You must continue it...please!
