Intro:

A B C# E(7th Fret) 2x

Verse:

I ll see what you want me to see

Through rose-colored glasses

C#

I can t see the blood in my hand

C#

Now you re over, you re so over

All over my head

A

I pray to God I find my way

C#

Back to something familiar

Please tear me from this contraband

C#

Now it s over, it s so over

It s under my bed

Chorus:

The painting s worn pale

C#

Your eyes have started fading

E

Were they ever even really there

B

E

Nothing to give with everything you take

B

C#

The cracks in your smile make it impossible

E

	To decipher something legible
A	B	C#	E
Your porcelain face and a heart of glass

Verse 2:

(same as the first verse)

No time for dependency
 We re going over at light speed
 No scenery to stimulate Something older, we grow older
 But nothing ever seems to change
 I pray to God you lose your way
 You re something peculiar
 On one leg only I ll still take a stand
 I fall over, a tall order
 These times I need to rearrange

After the first verse repeat the chorus again..

when playing the solo part, play the chords in the verse and then in the chorus part...

after the solo repeat the chorus and play C# part in the chorus until the end...

also when playing the chorus just listen to the parts where you have to mute the C#....

that s it.. for your comments and suggestions e-mail me at my e-add located at the upper of this page.. thank you...
