

The Stars Are My Chandelier
David Dondero

Tab of live performance. The swipe is just an upstroke of the bottom strings, just keep up the beat and wing it.

i love her more than he could ever even hope for love her twice as much as all of there is and more i could say my love is bigger than the big apple like oxyphenbutazone in scrabble just like the stars are my chandelier just like these landscapes are my living room just like the highways are veins i am the blood, i am the rain saw the stars align in twentyseven straight rows saw the trees becoming lovers in the shadows heard the crickets overpowered every radio heard the sound of the silence kill my ego, kill your ego, kill all ego and all these stars were our chandelier and all these landscapes were our living rooms and all the highways are veins we are the blood, we are the rain and you, you re heaven to hold we ll never get old you re heaven to hold honey, you re heaven to hold
