Dream In Colours David Fonseca

Intro: G
I dream in colours,
I drift in circles,
The falling angels,
The popping bubbles...
I dream in numbers,
And I count them backwards,
And I see you waiting at the,
Zero hours, so...
Exploding pumpkins,
The dying flowers,
The bloodsheds turns to
Songs, buildings, towers...
So I sit on your wall,
If I get there first,
I ll drown in your love,
I ll never wake up...
I ll never wake up...
I dream in colours
I dream in colours
I dream in colours
So I sit on your wall,
And I ll get there first,
I ll drown in your love,
I ll never wake up...
I ll never wake up...
