

All Lovers are Deranged
David Gilmour

(use uma distorção do tipo heavy metal. Tem-se notícias de que Gilmour usou um HM-2 Boss nesse álbum)

(intro E --- A E)

A E

It takes a fool to phone a fool

A E

When both have said it all

A E

We make the rule, bemoan the rule

That neither one should call

G

But love that was

Is love that is

A

Demands to always be unchanged

E

But then all lovers are deranged.

A E

We walk away with memories

A E

And clutch them to our hearts

A E

We re disembodied entities

We move in fits and starts

G

For burning wine

Intoxicates,

A

And takes all caution in its flames

E

All lovers are deranged.

G

A

You know that you don t really fall in love

E

Unles you re seventeen

G

A

The break of day will make your spirits fly

G

But you can't know what it means

Unless you're seventeen. B D A C B E

A E

It takes a fight to start a fight

A E

And differences remain

A E

We have the right to think we're right

We're addicts feigning shame

G

For love recalled

Is love reborn

G

We're determined to relieve the pain

E4 E

E A D G C F# B E

But then lovers are deranged.