

For You

David Ryan Harris

G Bm7

Saturday before the sun is up

C G/B Am7

I m out the door and on my way I

Catch the two and then the thirty five

And by six fifteen I m on the train

Thrity miles till the final stop

And still I have to walk a few more

By the time I finally reach your garden s gate

I have nineteen steps till I m at your door

[Pre-Chorus]

C/G D/F#

And oh what a thrill

E? Bm7

To finally be with you

C

And when I see your face I know that

[Chorus]

G Bm7 C G/B Am7

There ain t nothing strong enough to keep me away from you

G Bm7 C G/B Am7

There can be a wall of fire ten feet or higher I would just walk on through

G Bm7 C G/B Am7

Where there once was only room for one forever there will be two

[Verse 2]

G Bm7

Sunday night and I m at home alone

C G/B Am7

And I miss the smell of your perfume

G Bm7

Five longs days and four more hours

C G/B Am7

Till I am there again with you

[Pre-Chorus]

And oh what a thrill
To finally be with you
And when I see your face I know that

[Chorus]

There ain't nothing strong enough to keep me away from you
There can be a wall of fire ten feet or higher I would just walk on through
Where there once was only room for one forever there will be two
That's why I travel all this way for you

[Bridge]

Cm7 Dm7

Seconds make minutes

D#m7 A#/D

Make hours make days

Acp

I've added it all up a million ways

Cm7 Dm7 D#m7 A#/D

Multiply that times the fact that when I'm with you

Am7

I feel brand new

Girl and that's why I travel all this way for you

[Chorus]
