

Strong Enough
David Ryan Harris

Transcribed by Chris Rittelmeyer

NOTE: This is not the version from The Bittersweet album. I m not sure what LP or EP this version is from, but I think it s better than The Bittersweet version. He does it in Drop D, but I do this in standard tuning. It s up to you!

Dm C F
I would have given my world to see
C F C
You deliver the jailer s key
Bb F
I d give you the credit
C
And take what went wrong

Dm C F
I would have given most anything
C F C
To see your lips move but hear me singing
Bb F
If you had opened your mouth
And spit out my song

Dm C F
Lover you re forgiven
F C F
You have suffered for long enough
F C
They re holding their breath
F Bb
And I m calling their bluff
F C F
Our love is strong enough
F C Dm C F
Our love is strong enough

Dm C F
If there were ever a movie made
C F C
That outlines my life in some honest way
Bb F C

Line for line note for note and page by page

Dm C F
I d hope that who ever played your part
C F C
Would feel my remorseful and heavy heart
Bb F C
They would open their mouth and unyieldingly say

Dm C F
Lover you re forgiven
F C F
You have suffered for long enough
F C
They re holding their breath
F Bb
And I m calling their bluff
F C F
Our love is strong enough
F C Dm C F
Our love is strong enough

Am E C
Instead you held the key over my head
D
And just out of reach
F C
Till any love that used to be
F C
Got wasted on the need for me
F C
To feel as though I could be free
F C
Cause I m not your asshole I m not your thief
F Am6/F# G
I thank the lord that I finally was released

Am G C
Lover you re forgiven
Am G C
We ve both suffered for long enough
F G
They all held their breath
Am F
But we couldn t call their bluff
F G C
Cause our love wasn t strong enough
F G C
Our love wasn t strong enough
F G C
Our love wasn t strong enough
