

Coming Back To A Man

Dawes

Dawes - Coming Back to a Man
from the album Nothing is Wrong

tabbed by RandMcNally at Ultimate-Guitar.com

Standard Tuning (EADGBE)

A D A
you still wear your hair to your shoulder

D Em D A
you still look like a friday night

D Em D F#m D
you re still caught somewhere between the plans and the dreams

A B7 A
so that neither end up turning out right

A D A
and i myself look a few moments older

D Em D A
when i learned that love is not as simple as i thought

D Em D F#m D
it starts to feel more real and the wounds all start to heal

A B7 A
whether i want them to or not

D A
so tell me why you think i should forgive what you did

E E7 A
and ill tell you if i understand

D A F#m
cause you broke the quick-giving heart of a kid

A E A
but youre now coming back to a man

A D A
it means a lot that you came here to speak to me

D Em D A
and i will listen in ways i never did before

D Em D F#m D
i ll hear the pause between each word and when your presentations heard

A B7 A
then i ll need to show you to the door

A D A
cause some people were just meant to be a memory.

D Em D A
to be called upon to remind us how we ve changed

