

Something In Common

Dawes

Intro: E A E x2

E A E
All my mornings start with the alarm clock

E D#dim C#min
Every dream gets stopped before the end

E A E A
And with each bit I remember, the more the details run together

E D#dim C#min Bbdim
And Iâ€™m left with a message I donâ€™t understand

E B E
Iâ€™ve lost contact with the great beyond again

C#m G#m
And as I stare over my breakfast and out into the street

B7 D A
I find that sorrow Iâ€™ve been chasing way too often

C#m G#m
That the man that stands in front of you is not the sum of all his dreams

A E A
But Iâ€™m hoping theyâ€™ve got something in common

A E A
Yeah, Iâ€™m hoping theyâ€™ve got something in common

E A E
The way that love attacks and then surrenders

E D#dim C#m
The things I mean the most when I say her name

E A E A
And if he ever speaks of me casually, I hope he does so carefully

E D#dim C#m Bbdim
â€™Cause when youâ€™ve loved somebody, everythingâ€™s to blame

E B E
And I donâ€™t want her to ever feel ashamed

C#m G#m
But all my best kept secrets are the ones I didnâ€™t know I had

B7 D A
So I couldnâ€™t even tell her if I wanted

C#m G#m
That the way that she remembers me is not the way I really am

A E A
But Iâ€™m hoping theyâ€™ve got something in common

A E A
Iâ€™m hoping theyâ€™ve got something in common
