

Something In Common

Dawes

Intro: D G D x2

D G D
All my mornings start with the alarm clock

D C#dim Bmin
Every dream gets stopped before the end

D G D G
And with each bit I remember, the more the details run together

D C#dim Bmin G#dim
And Iâ€™m left with a message I donâ€™t understand

D A D
Iâ€™ve lost contact with the great beyond again

Bm F#min
And as I stare over my breakfast and out into the street

A7 C G
I find that sorrow Iâ€™ve been chasing way too often

Bm F#m
That the man that stands in front of you is not the sum of all his dreams

G D G
But Iâ€™m hoping theyâ€™ve got something in common

G D G
Yeah, Iâ€™m hoping theyâ€™ve got something in common

D G D
The way that love attacks and then surrenders

D C#dim Bm
The things I mean the most when I say her name

D G D G
And if he ever speaks of me casually, I hope he does so carefully

D C#dim Bm G#dim
â€™Cause when youâ€™ve loved somebody, everythingâ€™s to blame

D A D
And I donâ€™t want her to ever feel ashamed

Bm F#m
But all my best kept secrets are the ones I didnâ€™t know I had

A7 C G
So I couldnâ€™t even tell her if I wanted

Bm F#m
That the way that she remembers me is not the way I really am

G D G
But Iâ€™m hoping theyâ€™ve got something in common

G D G
Iâ€™m hoping theyâ€™ve got something in common
