

Something In Common

Dawes

Intro: F# B F# x2

F# B F#
All my mornings start with the alarm clock

F# Fdim Ebmin
Every dream gets stopped before the end

F# B F# B
And with each bit I remember, the more the details run together

F# Fdim Ebmin Cdim
And Iâ€™m left with a message I donâ€™t understand

F# C# F#
Iâ€™ve lost contact with the great beyond again

Ebm Bbmin
And as I stare over my breakfast and out into the street

C#7 E B
I find that sorrow Iâ€™ve been chasing way too often

Ebm Bbm
That the man that stands in front of you is not the sum of all his dreams

B F# B
But Iâ€™m hoping theyâ€™ve got something in common

B F# B
Yeah, Iâ€™m hoping theyâ€™ve something in common

F# B F#
The way that love attacks and then surrenders

F# Fdim Ebm
The things I mean the most when I say her name

F# B F# B
And if he ever speaks of me casually, I hope he does so carefully

F# Fdim Ebm Cdim
â€™Cause when youâ€™ve loved somebody, everythingâ€™s to blame

F# C# F#
And I donâ€™t want her to ever feel ashamed

Ebm Bbm
But all my best kept secrets are the ones I didnâ€™t know I had

C#7 E B
So I couldnâ€™t even tell her if I wanted

Ebm Bbm
That the way that she remembers me is not the way I really am

B F# B
But Iâ€™m hoping theyâ€™ve got something in common

B F# B
Iâ€™m hoping theyâ€™ve got something in common

C##dim

G#m

Fdim

That seems much more accurate to me

To keep the frame as wide as it can be

G#m

Ebm

Cause all the love and friends and happiness that ever came my way

Revealed themselves the moment I stopped watching

G#m

Ebm

Cause itâ€™s not faith that comes from miracles, but miracles that come from faith
