Dominoes

Dawn Mitschele

Awesome Song. Been playing around with this for agggessss trying to figure it out, and a of people seem to want the chords. This sounds pretty cool to me, correct me if necessary!

She plays Am and Em bared on the 12 th fret. I play them open cause it suits my voice better.

Not sure about the rest. Either way, its an awesome song.

In the bridge part, the progression is F G C F. There s a little run on the C chord bass
If you want to play it, its $C$ C/B $C / A C / G$ then on to $F$ as normal. Or just leave it out.

Am Em Am Em (mute)

Am Em Am Em (mute)

Heads are turning, each one is yearning
