

1984

Days N' Daze

[Intro]

Dm Bb F C

[Verse 1]

Dm Bb
Soon we ll be scouring ravaged landscapes
F C
Scavenging scrapes of the city to salvage the past
Dm Bb
The social divide between us and them
F C
Has far surpassed the weight of our wallets

[Chorus]

(let Ring)
Dm
Electric minds
Bb
Nothing mean anything
F
When we cheapen our genuine feelings
C
With a computer screen
(Let Ring)
Dm
Electric fingertips
Bb
To sell your soul to corporate demons
F C
Marketing your life to fit the figures and the polls
(Let Ring)
C
Charting your consumption
N.C.
To construct the perfect mold

[Verse 2]

Dm
I fuckin give up playing catch up
Bb
I can t keep up you can keep it
F
If you cannot see the change
C

It s because it isn t there

Dm

The means to build technology

Bb

To perpetuate these trends

F

C

Costs us so much more than dollar and cents in the end

[Chorus]

(let Ring)

Dm

Electric minds

Bb

Nothing mean anything

F

When we cheapen our genuine feelings

C

With a computer screen

(Let Ring)

Dm

Electric fingertips

Bb

To sell your soul to corporate demons

F

C

Marketing your life to fit the figures and the polls

(Let Ring)

C

Charting your consumption

N.C.

To construct the perfect mold

[Bridge: Whitney & Jesse]

Dm

Pull the wires from your teeth

Bb

Your fingers from the keys

F

Your spine from the cable

C

Your eyes from the screen (x4)

Dm

Bb

Your entire life fits in the palms of their hands

F

C

Can t you see it s only getting worse

Dm

Bb

Humans have evolved into corporations

F

C

Can t you see this is 1984

[Chorus]

(let Ring)

Dm

Electric minds

Bb

Nothing mean anything

F

When we cheapen our genuine feelings

C

With a computer screen

(Let Ring)

Dm

Electric fingertips

Bb

To sell your soul to corporate demons

F

C

Marketing your life to fit the figures and the polls

(Let Ring)

C

Charting your consumption

N.C.

To construct the perfect mold