Like It, Love It, Need It
by: DC Talk
CD: Jesus Freak

VERSE 1:

E                B        A        E                                B-A-G
Under these circumstances they can hardly cope
E                B                A        E                                B-A-G
Notice their fleeting glances and thier lack of hope
E                B                A        E                                B-A-G
I offer this suggestion they don t seem to care-o
E                B        A        E                                B-A-G
This is my generation drowning in despair-o

E    G                A
You ll never find peace of mind in your pool of self
E    G                A
You ll never find peace of mind in a sea of wealth
E    G                A
You ll never find peace of mind in your rock and roll
E    G                A
You ll never find peace of mind if you sell your soul

CHORUS:

E                                F#
You gotta like it, You gotta love it
G                                A
I know you need some freedom from the strife
E                                F#
You gotta like it, You gotta love it
G                                A
I know you need some Jesus in your life

E-F#-G-A

E-B-A-G (x4)

VERSE 2:

E                B                A        E                                B-A-G
We circumvent our feelings through an angry sound
E                B                A        E                                B-A-G
He who complains the loudest wears the fattest crown
E                B        A        E                                B-A-G
We re anti-everybody call it paranoia
E                B                A        E                                B-A-G
Well, I ain t no judge or jury, but I m praying for ya

E
