

Fergus Sings The Blues
Deacon Blue

Intro

E E F#m D
E E F#m D

Verse

E
Fergus sings the blues
F#m D
In bars of twelve or less
E
I m a stranger to the land
F#m D
To this wilderness

Pre-Chorus

Asus2 E
All Things are possible
Asus2 E
But happen less and less
Asus2 E
This Is my country
Asus2 Dsus2
These Are my reasons

D E
Cause I look in the mirror
D E
And it throws back the question
D E
And I whisper in words
D E
That beg an answer
D E
Tell me can this white man sing the blues?

Verse

E
Home sick James
F#m D
My biggest Influence

E
Tell Me why
F#m D
James and Bobby purify?

Pre-Chorus

Asus2 E
Lost in music
Asus2 E
Sweet soul music
Asus2 E
This is my country
Asus2 Dsus2
These are my reasons

D E
Cause I look in the mirror
D E
And it throws back the question
D E
And I whisper in words
D E
That beg an answer
D E
Yes, I look in the mirror
D E
And it throws back the question
D E
And I whisper in words
D E
That beg an answer
D E
Tell me can this white man sing the blues?

E F#m D
E E F#m D

Pre-Chorus

Asus2 E
From the north coast to the uplands
Asus2 E
Stay on the left side of the white lines
Asus2 E
The campsites over Christmas
Asus2 Dsus2
I still dream of Memphis

Outro

D E

Cause I look in the mirror
D E
And it throws back the question
D E
And I whisper in words
D E
That beg an answer
D E
I got the blue, blue world
D E
And I see the blue, blue sky
D E
I got I got the blue, blue ocean
D E
In my blue eye
D E
Tell me can this white man sing the blues?
