

Love And Regret
Deacon Blue

Intro - E C#m A B x2

A E
Cold dawn won't comfort you
A E
Cold coffee won't see you through
A E
Cold sheets won't heal your heart
A E
Your frozen fingers or your name so tarred

E C#m A B
I know so rarely that things come your way
E C#m A B
Your ways are tender and your paths are straight
E C#m A B
Your mind's not lived in the way ours are set
E C#m A B
Your heart is open to love and regret

A E
Rings and letters they pass you by
You wish them well and seldom cry
For stones and promises and wedding sighs
You've known the times that you've lived and died

E C#m A B
These sailors come and spend time ashore
Their thoughts are hoarded as yours have been stored
Your mind's not lived in the way ours are set
Your heart is open to love and regret

E A E
Outside in the morning air

I hear the soundtrack of the Blues harp player
It touches feelings that you don't arouse
Knocks me back to that shuttered house
Take me back when they're all out
Take me back to that shuttered house

Solo E C#m A B (chords continue til fade)

E-----|
 B-9-10-9-12-----|
 G-----9-----11--9-----bd---bu-----| Play 1 and a half times then ad lib
 D-----9--11-----11-(10)-(11)---9--|
 A-----|
 E-----|
 bd = bend down bu = bend up

I know so rarely that things come your way
 Your ways are tender and your paths are straight
 Your mind`s not lived in the way ours are set
 Your heart is open to love and regret
 Love and regret