Into the fire on my own, hey
I know i wont see your face again
Are you sitting there alone, hey
Are you thinking like me of the laughing times or of the sad and loving times
Everything that s left from us, is fading away

Promise me to think of us as a time so wonderful.
Promise me to think of us still bright still colorfull.
Promise me to look back at us as a time in your life you enjoyed.

Surounded by flames everywhere
What i used to be im not even there
The absence of you is killing me, hey

Are you thinking like me of the laughing times or of the sad and loving times
Everything that s left from us is fading away.

promise me to think of us, as a time so wonderful.
Promise me to think of us, still bright still colorfull
Promise me to look back at us, as a time in your life you enjoyed promise me,
will be fine without you

Promise me, promise me, there s more in my life to see you

Promise me, promise me, i will be fine without you

I will be fine without you
What a glory in my life to see you... to see you....

Promise me to think of us as a time so beutiful.
Promise me to think of us still bright still colorfull
Promise me to look back at us as a time in your life you enjoyed
