

Hellnation
Dead Kennedys

The main riff is played one of two ways. the first one, in my opinion, sounds better, the way that the rest of the chords are played, the second one seems more likely. it s up you really. Without distortion the A# won t sound right.

Just listen to the song. the timing isn't that hard to get down, although the song is relatively fast and it's easy to play the chords too deliberately and not quick enough.
is only my second tab, and it's my first tab with a solo in the song, so give me a good rating.
