Out there, somewhere, just like me

Someday we will meet And we ll park neath the apple trees

All those little things about you girl,I can t wait to learn someday.

You know I m on my way, And we ll park neath the apple trees

When I was just a boy I d run barefoot beneath those leaves

Throwing rotten apples, Building forts, Making believe

I guess I never grew up Cause I still believe in love

And that that day will come And we'll park neath the apple trees

In an orchard, by a barn Listen to some late night radio

Watch the satellites and stars And I will hold you in my arms,

Till we both fall asleep. Underneath the apple trees.

Underneath the apple trees.
