

The Right Mistakes
Deas Vail

Intro

C--- G--- Am--- Em---

C                    G                    D                    Em
I wasn't afraid, until the day I saw you that way.
C                    G                    D                    Am
You're falling apart wondering how many second chances there are.
C                    G                    Em                    D
Grace, it doesn't work that way, and faith is not a step we take.

C                    G                    Em
Here's our chance, we can fall in love again.

D                    C
It won't have to be that way.

C                    G                    Em
We can run from the lies we're living in.

D                    C                    D                    G
And make all the right mistakes...

C                    D                    G
Come away...

C                    G                    D                    Em
Your choice is the same, but every time you make it you change.

C                    G                    D                    Am
If you give I will take, all the little failures away.

C                    G                    Em
Here's our chance, we can fall in love again.

D                    C
It won't have to be that way.

C                    G                    Em
We can run from the lies we're living in.

D                    C                    D                    G
And make all the right mistakes...

C                    D                    G
Come away...

Em                    D                    G
You're in the middle of a nightmare

Em                    D                    G
but you will never be alone there.

C                    G                    Em
I just want you to know what healing is.

C                    G                    Am
If you want we can start all over again.

C G Em
Here s our chance, we can fall in love again.

D C
It won t have to be that way.

C G Em
We can run from the lies we re living in.

D C D G
