Shuttered with shades drawn

Noise

Cars on the freeway

Tempting a clean break

But there s nowhere left to go

Watching the roots weave
C#
Through cracks in the concrete

A B
Plates, they will shift
B - A A
Houses will shake
A C#
Fences will drift
C#-B E
We will awake

Only to find

Nothing s the same
A C#
Nothing s the same

Home, home is a fire,
C#

A burning reminder

Of where we belong, love

C#

With walls built up around us

The bricks make me nervous

They re only so strong, love
