

Where Is The Justice
Death Note

[Light]

Ebm

Where is the justice

B

When the guilty all go free

Ebm

Why don't we lock them up

B

And throw away the key

[Teacher]

Ebm

B

I see a young man's anger burning in your eyes

[Light]

Db

What you see is my impatience

Ebm

With your noble compromise

Ebm

Show me what's right about

B

The wrongs that we allow

Ebm

Real people need to feel

B

Protected here and now

Ebm

B

This whole damn system's broken way beyond repair

Db

It's just law not law and order

Ebm

Not much good and seldom fair

[Teacher]

Abm

Laws are made for everyone

Ebm

We're treated all the same

[Light]

E

Bbm

Till a lawyer's tricks can fix the blame

Ebm

Let the corporations

Dbm

Make the regulations

Gb

B

And hold no one accountable

Db

Bb

When everything goes wrong

Ebm

Let the rich and famous

Db

Get away with murder

Gb

Every time a high-priced

B

Mouth-piece starts to talk

Db

Bbm

His client gets to walk

Ebm

Tell me, where is the justice?

B

Ebm

If there's any justice

[Students]

Where's the justice?

B

Tell me where!

[Light]

Db

Where is the justice

Ebm

For all the victims?

[Students]

B

Tell me where!

[Light]

Db

Where is the justice?

E

What good is law that can't

Bbm

Punish those who break it?

[Student #2]

Gbm

Politicians

D

E

Make their speeches all day long

Gbm

While judges pushing pencils

E

Mostly get it wrong
(Mostly get it wrong!)

[Student #3]

Gbm

Instead of loopholes

D

For the laws to fall between

E

Let some good old-fashioned pay-back

Gbm

Grease the wheels of a machine

[Light]

Bm

Gbm

Isn't everybody sick to death of all this stuff?

G

Db

Can't we all stand up and say enough?

Gbm

E

D

Db

(Justice, justice, justice, now's the time for)

[Light]

Gbm

Listen to the families

E

Hiding in their houses

A

All of them afraid to walk the streets at night

E

Db

With all their doors locked tight

Gbm

D

Gbm

We must give them their justice

[Outro]

D

Gbm

D

Db

We owe them some justice

Dbm

Abm

Gbm

Where is the justice?
