[VERSE]

G A G A
I ve got the same Kandinsky prints that my brother s got,
G A G A
With the same black frames, like he bought.
G A G A
In between them, on the wall is something my girlfriend calls
G A
trashy...
G A G A
Brownie and the Boo-man got that for me.

G A x 3

[VERSE] You get the idea of the G A pattern, right?

On the wall facing us is a black-and-white of all of us back in Brighton,
I remember it like today, but the sun has made it fade...
Still, I know you where England is.

[CHORUS]

D A
And I know this ain t home,
D A

But it sure feels like home.

D A D G A

I know this somewhere is really nowhere.

[VERSE] same G A pattern

I ve got a black-and-white t.v., but I don t really see

The need to burden it with cable.

I got the sofa from the folks, and the table I just stole...

With a nean Mickey s sign for no reason

[CHORUS]

D A

And I know this ain t home,

D A

But it sure feels like home.

D A D G A

I know this somewhere is really nowhere.

[SOLO]

G A x 16

[CHORUS]

And I know this ain t home,

But it sure feels like home.

I know this somewhere is really nowhere.
