Lonely In Your Arms
Deep Sea Arcade

Cute Song. Easy as shit! Enjoy :)

Intro: Bm G Em C

Verse:
Bm
She was on her own tonight
          G
She knew the fools and she played them right
Em   C
Maybe that was something I thought she saw in me
Bm
If you were to ask me why
        G
For my amusement and to pass the time
Em   C
Maybe she will cast a line into the big Black Sea

Chorus:
              D   G
Now she said I, I could be lonely
                  C   Am
Bet I could be lonely in your arms
              D   G
I know that I, I could be lonely
                  C   Am
Bet I could be lonely in your arms

Verse 2:
Bm
Baby it s a long way down
G
Maybe on the wrong way round
    Em   C
And every damaged and tortured soul shall remain in need

Chorus:
              D   G
Now she said I, I could be lonely
                  C   Am
Bet I could be lonely in your arms
              D   G
I know that I, I could be lonely
                  C   Am
Bet I could be lonely in your arms

```
Bridge:
                   C              Am            C
Something to do hang around walk you home
                  Am
Something to talk about
                   C              Am            C
Something to do hang around walk you home
                       Am
Something I thought about

Solo: Bm G Em C

Chorus:
                     D                G
Now she said I, I could be lonely
                    C                  Am
Bet I could be lonely in your arms
                   D              G
I know that I, I could be lonely
                    C                  Am
Bet I could be lonely in your arms

Bridge:
                   C              Am            C
Something to do hang around walk you home
                  Am
Something to talk about
                   C              Am            C
Something to do hang around walk you home
                       Am
Something I thought about
                   C              Am            C
Something to do hang around walk you home
                  Am
Something to talk about
                   C              Am            C
Something to do hang around walk you home
                       Am
Something I thought about

I m sure you won t have any issues :)
