[Key of C]

Em

Em

Come on baby, it s a quarter to five

Am

I ve been living on the couch and losing my mind

Em

I haven t gotten the touch in long, long time, since

B7 En

Friday the 13th, Part 9, going to hell.

Em

Looking through all the magazines

Am

I can drink alot better than I could in my teens

Em

Haven t learned nothing but to kick and scream

B7 Ei

But as civilized as we could ever dream on one Saturday.

Em

G Am

Come on baby, don t you feel alright

It feels like forever since I ve been warm at night

So let s get back to all that was fair and just

B7 C D G Am

Won t you please love me again.

[The key changes to F here...]

Am

Kind of attraction I couldn t leave

Dm

Keep watching the static on TV

Am

Might be as well but not as bad

E7 Am

when your silence shows of our public failure.

I woke up in the middle of the night,
Dm
Sheets soft, still, drunk, terrified,
Something tells me you re not alive
E7
Post keeps getting fatter.
C
                        Dm
Come on baby, don t you feel alright
                                      Am
It feels like forever since I ve been warm at night
So let s get back to all that was fair and just E7
                 F
                          C
Won t you please love me again.

   Am Em [B7 D]
                     Em
Em
Oh come on baby, You got something to lose
I ll buy you new clothes, I ll buy you new shoes
All kinds of things you really couldn t use
But all I need is you.
Em
I need you good, all your heart and soul
We ve been living in the dar and digging our holes
But all we need is under our nose
в7
Boy don t you think I know, I guess so.
Come on baby, don t you feel alright
It feels like forever since I ve been warm at night
So let s get back to all that was fair and just в7
Won t you please love me again.
Please love me again...
