The song structure and lyrics are as follows:

These first few verses are soft, with only the intro and riffs A and B

Play the intro riff, then

I?m caught in a dream, sometimes it ain?t what it seems.

I?m all in a daze, cant fight my way out of this maze.

Riff A

I?m looking for clues, and wanting a change in the rules.

I?m locked in a cage, acting out on the wrong stage.

Riff B

Don?t want your sympathy

No,no, no.

(Don?t need the third degree,)
No, no, no.
(I?ve just gotta break away and scream.)
I?m caught in a dream.

Guitar 2 continues to play riff A and guitar 1 plays
second part of the intro riff once

I?m still at the edge and I?m lookin down
Caught in the danger zone
Feels like a king who has lost his crown
And now I stand here alone

Riff B
(Don?t want your sympathy,)
No?no..no
Don?t need the third degree,)
No..o??o
(I?ve just gotta break away and scream.)

I?M CAUGHT IN A DREAM!
With this it turns rocking!!!

Riff C
Fractured love, fractured love,
Iron fist in a velvet glove.
Fractured love, fractured love,
Cracks in the mirror of this fracture love.

I don?t care if you pull down the sky,
Angry passion is a friend of mine.
Reach out for the sky above,
It?s just a fractured love.

Fractured love, fractured love,
Iron fist in a velvet glove.
Fractured love, fractured love,
Cracks in the mirror of your fractured love.

Then the bridge

Riff D (play the corresponding guitar also)
I?m caught in a dream.

Riff E (play corresponding guitar also)
Why don?t you set me free?

Then there?s that superb guitar solo, with riffs C played in between twice, followed by power C and power A chord, and then riff D once.

We are still working on it and shall put it up later.

Don?t want your sympathy?????.play A5

Don?t need your third degree????..play C5

just gotta break,
Break away and scream!!!

Riff F
I?m caught in a dream.

Riff G
Why don?t you set me free?

Riff C
Fractured love
(fractured love,)
Fractured love,
(fractured love,)
Iron fist in a velvet glove.
Fractured love,
(fractured love,)
Fractured love,
(fractured love,)

Riff H
Don?t give me your fractured love??..oh?o??..oh??o

Finally the outro solo for which guitar 2 plays riff I

And then ends with riff H and
