Eb5 B5
Let s stop this talk of privelege cause the

F#5 C#5
songs that we sing are as much of a product of our privelege as

Eb5 B5
the clothes on my back, or the

F#5 C#5
phone call I made to my mom last night

Eb5 B5
And let s stop this talk of action cause

F#5 C#5

action comes easy it s the moments just before that are hard

Eb5 B5
when I die and my voice and my face on the

F#5 C#5
same page as my heart

B5
as my heart

the things we find deplorable in politicians, CEOs, and cops

are the same things that will tear ourselves apart

Eb5 (n.D.)

words like dishonesty, selfishness, and laziness, and greed aren t as distant to us as we d

like to believe

F#5(2)

C#5

know that when we pick up the pieces the

B5

C#5

F#5(2)

C#5

B5

C#5

made up every revolution that I ve ever known to make me

F#5(2)

C#5

believe and lose faith in humanity in the

B5

C#5

same empty breath of hot air

+-- Bridge (1:31)

And they say

Eb5

B5

C#5

Bb5

that the beauty s in the streets

G#5

B5

But when I look around

Eb5

B5

C#5

Bb5

it seems more like defeat

G#5

B5

And I m afraid that this

F#5

C#5

fight that we re all caught up in

G#5

B5

will make us the same as that

C#5

which we oppose
