Im Against The Government
Defiance, Ohio

   Listen to the song for the strum patterns

[Intro]
E A E E

[Verse]
```
        E                 A                    E
They ll lock you up if you don t play by the rules
E                                   A         E
Twist it out and beat it out of you in a padded room
```

[Chorus]
```
   C#m                   A            B     E
So what do you do with a council full of charlatans
C#m          A           B     E
Pounding on the table with their dirty hands?
C#m           A           B        E
This ain t an excuse, no it s just self-defense
C#m                       A             B
Spit it out, spit it out, come on and let it go
```

[Intro]
E A E E (x2)

[Verse]
```
E                    A                 E
They don t want no one to drive electric cars
E                         A                               E
Spending all the money building rockets that can shoot down all the stars
```

[Chorus]
```
   C#m                   A            B     E
So what do you do with a council full of charlatans
C#m          A           B     E
Pounding on the table with their dirty hands?
C#m           A           B        E
This ain t an excuse, no it s just self-defense
C#m                       A             B
Spit it out, spit it out, come on and let it go
```

[Bridge]
E A (x8)
C#m A B B (x2)

[Chorus]

```
     C#m                          A                   B         E
So what do you do with a council full of charlatans
C#m              A                   B       E
Pounding on the table with their dirty hands?
C#m                  A                   B           E
This ain t an excuse, no it s just self-defense
C#m                              A                           B
Spit it out, spit it out, come on and let it go

[Outro]
                    E              A  E
I m against the government
        E               A   E
Anti-establishment
                        E           A   E
And I love subversive elements
                        E           A    E
Might not ever be the president, oh no

[Outro]
E  E  A  E
