Never enough -- Del Amitri

intor: Bbm Eb (x2)

Bbm Eb Bbm Eb
With two hundred people in suits all the same
Bbm Eb Bbm Eb
You walk off that last lonely train.
Bbm Eb Bbm Eb
On the half finished buildings only seagulls remain
Bbm Eb Bbm Eb Bbm
As you try to think back to the root of this pain.

Eb Bbm Eb Bbm
And life ain t worth living without a little love
Eb Bbm
But a little love is never enough.

So some folks are fighting for freedom but you re just fighting the flab
And therein lies the fact that life is a drag
So you gaze at the television
As some publicity goons cut loose those useless balloons.

Eb Bbm Eb Bbm
And life ain t worth living without a little love
Eb Bbm
But a little love is never enough.

F Bbm Eb
Down in the darkness of your lying little heart
F# Bbm

There s a space for you to change

Eb

F

So you can take this world apart.

And these days the morning mirror seems to say to you now,

That you used to be pretty but you re alright now.

And sometimes you find you re dreaming as you re late for work again

Thinking there s not many trees you can see from this train.
