Tuning: Standard

Capo 3rd fret

Verse: D (x2) Bm A G D (x2) A (x4)

D Bm A
In a country house with the windows lit by burning wicks
G D A
And the walls held up by wood and bricks and ghosts that wander through
An old man died, but the help won t come till Monday next
And he s gone to meet the architects of the only world he knew

Chorus: G (x2) D (x2) A (x4)
And he s lonesome
And he s lonesome

Verse: D (x2) Bm A G D (x2) A (x4)
And the family mourned, at the wake he lay in front of them
Just as silent as he d ever been to any young child s eyes
And by buried skin, they shed their laughter and their tears
The pain of all those early years where innocence had died

Chorus: G (x2) D (x2) A (x4)
But now they re lonesome
Yes they re lonesome

Verse/Bridge: G D Bm A
Memorials that we may build
They won t the holes forever fill
There is a deep and aching chill
That settles in our bones
In our bones

Chorus: G (x2) D (x2) A (x4)
Cause we re lonesome
(Did you ever love somebody?
Did you ever lose someone?)
Cause we re lonesome

Outro:
