[Verse 1]

C G C F
Baby I m not waiting, I m just holding on to good
 C G C
It s still early, it s still more than I should
 C G C F
I m off to Carolina, I m gonna wear my mama s boots
 C G C
We may be parted, but that don t cut us at the roots

[Chorus]

 Am G F C
Cause in the morning, in the morning
Am G F
Sometimes I think about the way you held me
 Am G F C
In the morning, in the morning
Am G F
Sometimes I think about the way you held me

[Verse 2]

 C G C F
It s colder in November, the leaves are turning on the limbs
 C G C
The color s brightest just before the branches thin
C G C F

Yes I still remember that I am trying to begin
C G C
I met a new love and I m growing into him

[Chorus]

Am G F C
Cause in the morning, in the morning
Am G F
Sometimes I think about the way you held me
Am G F C
In the morning, in the morning
Am G F
Sometimes I think about the way you held me

[Interlude]

C (x2) G (x2) Am (x2) F (x2)

Bridge: C F G Am

C F
I see a new flag rising on an old flagpole
G Am
Shotgun fired in the firing hole
C F
And the snow keeps falling, the world is white
G Am
I need you tonight

[Interlude]

Am G F C, Am G F

[Chorus]

Am G F C
In the morning, in the morning
Am G F
Morning, in the morning
Am G F C
In the morning, in the morning
Am G F
Morning, in the morning
Am G F C
In the morning, in the morning
Am G F

Morning, in the morning

Am G F C

In the morning, in the morning

Am G F

Morning, in the morning

Am G F

Sometimes I think about the way you held me
