C/G 332010

Intro: C/G

C/G F
Say good morning to my friends
(7) G C/G
Oh my lord, it s 6am

C/G F
The day ain t nothin but a sentence paid
(7) G C/G
You work so hard and nothin changed

Am Dm
The union crooks treat me like a pawn

D G
They said to strike and I lost my job

C/G F
The folks back east, they say the market s fine
(7) G C/G
I heard that before 1929

C/G F
When Black Tuesday comes it ll be a hit
(7) G C/G
Right out of the air into the pit

Am Dm
There s one out now said the president

D G
War World 3 will make your poor horns bend

C/G F (7) G C(G)
ohhhhh.....

All the old boys said they could make it last
Like Vietnam without a draft
Got the best in the biz for the marketing
We ll turn the Marlboro Man into a marine
The brave youth will come from far & wide
When 911 is the battle cry

C/G E7 C/G F
Well this American proud tradition

C/G E7 C/G F
Yes they pulled the switch and cried for vengeance

C/G E7 C/G F

If your god forgave all of your sins

C/G                      E7              C/G              F

Then why would you make martyrs out of them?

G (switch between G an G7 or maybe some C chord)

For money? Or power? Or glory?

C/G

Do you even care?

end on C/G
