G C/B
Beat like a rug, bashed out and clubbed u2028
Am7 G
And it s all for my betterment. u2028
G C/B
I ll give you a rib, with the marrow dried up u2028
Am7 G
When it s not much but a widow s gift
C
In the right rays of sun

I d write you a song, for all men to be one u2028
But I sing it from a place of pride. u2028
I can sing over most and I d gladly be the host u2028
But most often I just hang my head and cry. u2028
There s a song beneath the earth, u2028 There is eyes within the dirt u2028
Under the nails of a working man. u2028u2028

Drug in by the rain, all the crooked ways I think u2028
A wish as in a mood to die. u2028
But life, it is good, no matter how far you sink u2028
Sometimes sitting still is better than to try. u2028
When you re down in a hole, u2028 When your heart s weighed down like gold u2028
There is a hand that can reach you there
