

Oh Paris
Dent May

Dent May- Oh Paris!

Since this is played on a ukulele, it actually kind of sounds better played an octave up at the 12th fret. The intro doesn't translate very comfortably to acoustic guitar either.

E A
Oh Paris , you've really done something to me

F#m B F#m B
You and I seem to agree here tonight

E A
Oh Paris , I like to see you in the rain

F#m B F#m B
Pretty girls in black berets reading books in sad cafes

A E
I finally know that I belong here in this world

A
That I belong here in this world

F#m E* E7M E* E7M E6 A Bsus Badd9 Bsus
That I belong here in this world

E A
Blissfully, I walk for hours in your streets
F#m B F#m B
Stop to grab something to eat in the night
E A
Oh Paris , you were more than just friend
F#m B F#m B
Upon you I will depend, I will love you to the end

That I belong here in this world
F#m
That I belong

D B
Here in this world I ve seen my share of cities
D B
But never found my cup of tea
D B
Though New York Town still has my heart
E E7
Parisian girls are so sweet and smart
