

If Ever There's A Reason
Derby

This is my first attempt at a tab, I think this is really close. This site or software will not allow me to put the chords above the lines so I had to put them underneath, sorry.

If ever there's a reason to be swept up in the season of the falling leaves,
A E

As if the days grow shorter and the darkness drew its order from the
A

autumn break,
E

I'd rather sit this out than sleep the day away instead, weary eyes a bit
D Dm A D Dm

to slow to tear,
A

I'd rather sit this out than sleep the day away instead, to worry about
D Dm A B7

the emptiness that comes,
E

Oooooooooo, Oooooooooo, Oooooooo, Oooooooo (twice)
A A7 D Dm

If ever there's a need to watch the afternoon just roll into the evening sky,
A E

I find comfort in the finer things that keep you close, that keep you safe
A

within this room,
E

When it comes down on me, and I grit my teeth, and I start to stall,

D A E D A E D A E

When it comes down on me,

D A E

If ever theres a reason to be swept up in the season of the falling leaves,
A E

As if the days grow shorter and the darkness drew its order from the
A

autumn break,
E

I d rather sit this out than sleep the day away instead, weary eyes a bit
D Dm A D Dm

to slow to tear,
A

I d rather sit this out than sleep the day away instead, to worry bout
D Dm A B7

the emptiness that comes,
E

Oooooooooo, Ooooooooo, Oooooooooo, Ooooooooo (repeat 6 times)
A A7 D Dm

When it comes down on me, and I grit my teeth, and I start to stall,
D A E D A E D A E

(repeat to fade)

CHORDS:

A = 003330

A7 = 002120

B7 = 021202

E = 022100

D = 000232

Dm = 000231

<http://www.myspace.com/derbyrock>