C G F
As I was walking down the street one day
C G
I saw a house on fire
G G
There was man, shouting and screaming out an upper-storey window
G C G
To the crowd that was gathered there below
C G C
For he was sore afraid

C G F
Jump! You fucker, jump!
C
Jump into this here blanket what we are holding
C G
And you will be all right
G G C F
He jumped, hit the deck, broke his fucking neck -
C G C
There was no blanket

C G F
Laugh?! We nearly shat!
C
We had not laughed so much since Grandma died
C G
Or Auntie Mabel caught her left tit in the mangle
C G
We are miserable sinners
C G C
Fi-i-ilthy fuckers
F C
