

A Bitter End

Deryl Dodd

Album: Deryl Dodd

Song: The Bitter End

Transcribed by: Kevin Jay

Capo: 3rd fret

G D Em C G
Hey man I m glad you asked, cause I know more about that than I want to, and I ll share it with you.
D G
G D Em C G
If you don t work things out, and save your love somehow you ll know
D
it then, what it s like at the bitter end.

CHORUS:

D G Am
First comes the down pour, an emotional up roar, brought on by don t
C D
love you anymore, followed by a slammin door
G Am C
Then old lonely moves in, and the hurt begins, that s what it s like
D G
my friend. If you let it come to bitter end.

G D Em C G
If time were on my side, it would let me fly, back to the night
D G...
of our last fight.

G D Em C
Then I could hold my toungue, and hold on to the one I should have G D
never let go, then I wouldn t have to know

D G Am
Everything about the down pour, an emotional up roar, brought on by don t
C D
love you anymore, followed by a slammin door
G Am C
Then old lonely moves in, and the hurt begins, that s what it s like
D G
my friend. If you let it come to bitter end.

Solo...

D G Am

First comes the down pour, an emotional up roar, brought on by don't

C love you anymore, followed by a slammin' door

G Then old lonely moves in, and the hurt begins, that's what it's like D my friend. If you let it come to bitter end. G

G Hey man I'm glad you asked, cause I know more about that than I
D want to. G